Design meets news.

A bar stool with contrasts.

With the Kaloo, various influences come together in a bar stool that is both minimalistic and full of character.

Kaloo bar stool, design Karim Rashid.

Lines and curves.

The inspiration for Kaloo comes from various sources, expressed in a colourful interpretation of Scandinavian furniture design. The contrast between the frame and upper section gives the bar stool its own expression where the straight lines form a stable base which softens in the curved seat.
