We have done our homework.

Educational environments no longer look like they used to. Nowadays, teaching is being done in new, innovative and flexible ways. The individual and creativity are now more in focus as are ways to meet the demands for ergonomic and smart solutions. It is time for furniture to live up to reality, where design and function meet.

Here, we will present a selection of our designed products specially adapted for educational environments. Stools, bar stools, chairs, armchairs, benches, easy chairs, sofas, tables, clothing storage, magazine holders, waste assortment and complementary accessories.

Stools/Bar stools

A multifunctional piece of furniture that is useful in many different contexts. Comfortable to sit on, easy to move and often stackable. We always apply a sustainability mindset to our design, materials and the lifetime of the products.

Chairs/Armchairs

It is sometimes underestimated, but chairs are and will continue to be an important part of functional educational environments. Being able to sit comfortably for an entire lesson or lecture makes it easier to focus on what is important. We have a wide range to suit many different needs.

Clothes storage/ Magazine holders

Our clothing storage takes up little space, but its design is significant. The same goes for our magazine holders. A functional design where magazines become an integrated part of the furniture's expression.

Waste assortment/Others

If you need to throw something away, throw it away in style. One has sorting options, one is extra innovative and one swells with the rubbish it is filled with. Under "others" we have gathered complementary accessories, everything from an office kit to a smart box.
